
Course title: INTEGRATED AND INTERDISCIPLINARY TRAINING

ECTS credit allocation (and other scores): 0,5

Semester: spring

Level of study: ISCED-7 - second-cycle programmes (EQF-7)

Branch of science: Medical and health sciences

Language: English

Number of hours per semester: 15h

Course coordinator/ Department and e-mail: Jarosław Fedorowski jjfedorowski@aol.com Department of Cardiology and Internal Medicine

Type of classes: classes

Substantive content

CLASSES: presentation of the methodology of collecting an interview, conducting a physical examination and commissioning additional examinations

LECTURES: There are no lectures

Learning purpose: Learning and consolidating the methodology of interviewing, conducting a physical examination and ordering additional tests

On completion of the study programme the graduate will gain:

Knowledge: The student knows the method of collecting a medical history, conducting physical examinations and examining additional examinations

Skills: The student is able to carry out a full and targeted physical examination of an adult patient

Social Competencies: The student can establish and maintain deep, respectful contact with the patient

Basic literature: J. Alastair Innes Anna Dover Karen Fairhurst, Macleod's Clinical Examination: ISBN9780702069932, wyd. Churchill Livingstone, 2019

Supplementary literature: -

The allocated number of ECTS points consists of: 0,5

Contact hours with an academic teacher: 2h

Student's independent work: 2h