

35th Baltic Criminology Seminar
Challenges for criminology in turbulent times
Tallinn 19-20 June 2023
Kaarli pst 3, auditorium 201

Monday, 19th June 2023

- 9:30-9:45 Opening of the seminar – Dr Anneli Soo, Head of Department of Criminal Law, School of Law, University of Tartu, Estonia
Anna Markina – Researcher in Criminology, School of Law, University of Tartu, Estonia
- 9:45-11:00 Panel 1
A brief history of Polish criminological thought. Dr Maciej Duda, Dr Joanna Narodowska, prof. Wiesław Pływaczewski, University of Warmia and Mazury in Olsztyn
A Concept of Locus Minoris Resistentia and International Security. Prof. Jüri Saar, Estonian Academy of Security Sciences.
TBA. Dr. Chris Eskridge, University of Nebraska, United States
- 11:00-
11:30 Coffee break
- 11:30-
12:30 Panel 2
Restorative Justice in Europe - A stock-taking of recent developments and perspectives for the future. Prof. Dr. Frieder Dunkel, University of Greifswald, Germany
Is mediation appropriate in cases involving domestic violence? Dr. Ilona Michailovič, Faculty of Law, Vilnius University, Lithuania
- 12:30-
14:00 Lunch (not provided)
- 14:00 –
15:15 Panel 3
Teachers as Victims of School Violence: Possible Solutions in the Example of Tartu Hansa School. Carolyn Soosaar, University of Tartu, Estonia
Youth delinquency in Lithuania- is it an issue? Dr. Aušra Pocienė, Vilnius University
First results of ISRD4 Study in Estonia. Anna Markina, School of Law, University of Tartu, Estonia
- 15:15 –
15:30 Coffee break

15:30-
16:45

Panel 4

Counter-detection activities of criminal groups in Poland. Dr. Piotr Chlebowicz, University of Warmia and Mazury in Olsztyn, Poland
Challenges for green criminology during armed conflicts. Dr Joanna Narodowska, Dr Maciej Duda, Prof. Wiesław Pływaczewski, University of Warmia and Mazury in Olsztyn
The impact of the COVID-19 on crime in Poland based on statistical data. Konrad Buczkowski, The Institute of Justice, Poland

17:00-
20:30

Evening Social Program:

17:00 Bus to Estonian Academy of Security Sciences departs from Kaarli st 3
17:20- Welcome drink in the atrium and guided tours around the Tallinn campus
18:20 of the Estonian Academy of Security Sciences
18.20 -
20.00 Reception in the atrium
20.00 -
20.30 Return by bus to the city centre.

Tuesday, 20th June 2023

9.00 –
10.30

Panel 5

The Need for a Trauma-Informed Juvenile Justice. University of Tartu, Estonia
TBA. Ilona Kronberga, Latvia
The Manifestation of Child-Friendly Justice In The Restorative Justice Process from The Perspective of Children. Kadri Ann Sallia, Estonian Academy of Security Sciences
TBA. Kaire Tamm, Victim Support, Social Insurance Board, Estonia

10:15 –
10:45

Coffee break

10:45-
11:45

Panel 6

Sentencing to imprisonment. The judicial justification of punishment. Dominik Wzorek, Institute of Law Studies, Polish Academy of Sciences
In search of an alternative to imprisonment - could electronic monitoring be a remedy for the high rate of imprisonment? Paulina Sidor-Borek, Institute of Social Prevention and Resocialization, University of Warsaw

11:45-
12:00

Break

12:00-
13:00

Roundtable: The future of imprisonment – Moderated by Anneli Soo,
University of Tartu, Estonia
Participants
Dominik Wzorek, Institute of Law Studies, Polish Academy of Sciences
Paulina Sidor-Borek, Institute of Social Prevention and Resocialization,
University of Warsaw
Laura Kikas, Director of Justice College, Estonian Academy of Security
Sciences
Jako Salla, Director of Probation, Estonia

13:00-
13:15

Closing of the seminar

Social program/tours